Procedure for Student Complaints Concerning the Program of Legal Education:

As an American Bar Association assist Affairts or athe law school who wishes to brint Affairs. The writing may consist of an e mail, U.S. mail, or fax.

the Associate Dean for ng should describe in detail the behavior, program, process, or other he complaint, and should explain how the matter implicates the law cation and its compliance with a specific, identified ABA Standard(s). ng must provide the name, e mail address, phone number, and a street udent, for further communication about the complaint.

Iter the receipt of the complaint, or if the complaint is received within any of classes in a semester, within three weeks of the beginning of the next or the administrator's designee, will either meet with the complaining stance of the complaint in writing. In this meeting, or in this writing, the abstantive response to the complaint or information about what steps are to address the complaint or to further investigate the complaint. If all, after the complaint or information, the student will be provided onse to the complaint or information about what steps are being taken by complaint.

er being advised of any action the law school is taking to address the the initial complaint, may appeal the decision regarding the complaint, to t in the